Tuition and mandatory fees

Base tuition for full-time studies (100%) is set by the Meltz Committee. Tuition is set by the Council for Higher Education and is fully linked to the Consumer Price Index (CPI) from July 2024 (including for students whose entry term is spring or summer).

Tuition is updated on the 15th day of each month, and will under no circumstances be lower than the tuition established by the Council for Higher Education.

Below are tuition fees for the 2024-25 academic year

Base tuition for Israeli undergraduate (bachelor's degree) students 11,653 ILS¹ – discount rate.

Base tuition for Israeli students in all other degrees 15,748 ILS – full rate.

10% surcharge for part-time studies / prolonged bachelor's degree (BA) – 1,165.30 ILS.

The reduced tuition rate is subject to government decisions, implementation and Budgetary Law as approved for the 2024-25 academic year.

The decision is based on government commitment to fund the reduced rate as a condition for its execution. In the event that government coverage for said reduction is not obtained by the University, undergraduate students must pay the full tuition indicated above.

Please note:

- Tuition rates apply for full-time enrollment; actual charges are based on the number of credit hours for which the student is actually registered.
- Foreign students (students without Israeli citizenship):
Tuition for foreign students is 25% above the base tuition that applies for that year.
- Israeli students with full or partial tuition sponsorship:
Israeli students with institutional, government, public or other sponsorship for their tuition as part of employment conditions or employer-employee wage agreements or otherwise, must notify the Tuition Department of such; tuition for such students is set at 25% above the base tuition for that year.
This clause applies when tuition is paid by the sponsoring entity directly to Bar-Ilan University.
- Bar-Ilan University reserves the right to change tuition rates in accordance with decisions of the Council for Higher Education or the Bar-Ilan University administration.
- Bar-Ilan University reserves the right to charge undergraduate students registered for fewer than 18 credit hours at the full rate.²
- Pre-requisite courses taken to complete department requirements may not be used as surplus courses for obtaining continuing education allowance (gmul hishtalmut).
- Any change in tuition directives regarding tuition or debt cancellation for a specific student are in effect when approved by Bar-Ilan University in writing and signed by the Head of the Tuition and Curriculum Planning department.
- Diplomas are awarded only upon completion of academic requirements and provided that tuition and mandatory fees have been paid in full.
- Students will not be awarded two different degrees in the same diploma period unless one of them is a teaching certificate.
- Tuition for students enrolled in more than a single degree program in the same academic year is the sum of the tuition for each of the degrees taken separately.

²Undergraduate students –

The reduced tuition rate is subject to government decisions, implementation and Budgetary Law as approved for the 2024-25 academic year.

The decision is based on government commitment to fund the reduced rate as a condition for its execution. In the event that government coverage for said reduction is not obtained by the University, undergraduate students must pay the full tuition indicated on page 3.

Full tuition payment in advance

- Students enrolled in a BA or MA program, or in a teaching certificate program or in medical studies who wish to pay their full tuition in advance may contact the Tuition Department for a payment voucher to be paid by September 15, 2024. This full tuition payment entitles them to a 2.5% discount, provided they have a full-time course load with a tuition obligation no lower than 100%.
- The discount will be given after the change period of the spring semester, after examining the student's actual academic schedule.
- If the course load is lower than 100%, the 2.5% discount will not be granted.

How to submit a request for full tuition payment in advance:

In-Bar > In the “Requests and authorizations” menu > Submit a request > select subject “Tuition” > Full tuition payment via voucher > Submit

The specific request will be available via In-Bar from August 1, 2024 through September 15, 2024.

Scholarships

- Scholarship sums are entered into the student account record and offset the balance for payment.
- Scholarships or sponsorships that do not cover the full amount of tuition cover the latest payments; the student is obligated to cover the balance of the earlier payments.
- If the sponsor does not pay the full tuition or the agreed portion, or the sponsor's payment arrives late, the responsibility for timely tuition payment lies with the student, who must cover the debt.
- For students awarded a scholarship who then withdraw from their studies – scholarship eligibility will be revoked, and tuition will be in accordance with policy for withdrawal from studies.

Payment schedule

First payment – advance

The first payment of 3,811 ILS must be made in order to register for classes, in all degree programs.

The advance payment covers all mandatory fees + tuition.

The payment due date for incoming students is indicated on their acceptance letter.

Payment is due by Sunday, September 15, 2024 or two weeks before registration for classes – the earlier of the two.

Additional payments

| Payment #: | Payment due date: | |

Please note:

- Amounts due at every payment date include linkage differentials.
- Overdue balances incur late fee interest charges of 0.167% per week. Late fees are calculated from the 15th day of the month in which the payment due date falls, as shown in the table on page 8.
- Non-receipt of notification and/or voucher does not relieve you of responsibility to pay your tuition on time.
- The balance for immediate payment includes previous sums that were not paid by the tuition calculation date, as shown in the table on page 8 above.
- Your payment amount should never be higher than the “total balance through end-of-year”.
- All mandatory fees and payments for preparatory programs and English courses are an integral part of tuition and must be paid on time.

English studies

The fee per hour (1 credit hour) for MA students is 515 ILS in 2024-25. This payment is not included in the aggregate tuition for meeting minimum tuition requirements.

Hebrew writing skills

Master's degree students who register for a Hebrew writing skills course will be charged for the course per bachelor's degree policy shown on page 18.

Thesis completion only

Graduates of a non-thesis master's degree track enrolling at Bar-Ilan for a thesis only are charged a minimum of 100% base tuition, as follows: The thesis is equivalent to a maximum of 5 credit hours*; any credit hours beyond that incurs a charge at the rate of excess credit hours.

*standard credit hours are 5 + thesis credit hours on the particular track

MA prerequisite courses

Students accepted to a master's program with prerequisite course requirements are charged 1,010 NIS for each credit hour in 2024-25.

Prerequisite courses taken beyond the credit hours allotted incur charges of 6.7% of base tuition for each credit hour.

If prerequisite courses are not defined explicitly, students are charged for them initially as regular MA credits, and after the standard credit hours for the degree has been reached, tuition for the prerequisite courses are charged at a rate of 1,010 ILS per credit in 2024-25 (beyond 200% tuition).

MA students with a prerequisite course requirement exceeding 8 credit hours have an additional year added to the 'standard years for degree' for purposes of calculating this surcharge only.

Prerequisite course fees are not included in the aggregate tuition for meeting minimum tuition requirements; if master's courses are also taken in parallel, only they are counted when determining the minimum 50%.

Additional MA

Students who have completed their MA degree and wish to enroll in a master's program in another field are charged no less than 50% of the cost of the additional degree. (The request will be handled after applying for graduation for the additional degree).

Two master's degrees in parallel

- Tuition is calculated for each degree as described above, each independent of the other (mandatory fees are charged only once).
- In any event, students pay no less than full tuition for the more expensive degree and a minimum of 50% tuition for the additional degree.
- Supplement to 50% and prolonged studies surcharge apply to each degree separately (as per MA tuition guidelines).
- Students will not be awarded two different degrees in the same diploma period unless one of them is a teaching certificate.

Changing study program in mid-degree

For students who change their study program in mid-degree – accumulated credit-hours are recognized when calculating tuition for the new program (if the courses are recognized academically in the new program).

If the standard credit hours in the new program is different from that in the previous, tuition calculation in the year of transition is based on the standard in the new program and all master's degree tuition rules apply (including rules for accumulating minimum % tuition required for the degree).

Transitioning between thesis and non-thesis tracks (in either direction)

Standard credit hours and credit hour rates in a particular study are identical for thesis and non-thesis tracks.

Students who were in a thesis track and paid 200% and then transitioned to a non-thesis track do not incur excess credit charges.

Doctoral degree (PhD)
